A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE DC AIR NATIONAL GUARD

The 113th Wing is the largest military organization, both air and army, within the District of Columbia National Guard. The 113th Wing is comprised of approximately 1,100 personnel with about 500 of them being full-time. The DCNG is unique among National Guard units because it reports directly to the President, and not to a governor. Tied to this distinction, a Commanding General commands the District of Columbia National Guard instead of a governor.

The Wing's federal mission takes two parts. First, we maintain a mission-ready F-16C+ Fighting Falcon squadron for both worldwide deployment and homeland defense while performing our Air Sovereignty Alert (ASA) mission. Second, we provide mission-ready C-40C (Boeing 737-700) and C-38A (Gulfstream 100) airlift support to Congressional delegations and various military commands. Distinguished passengers carried by the Airlift Squadron include congressmen, cabinet members and service secretaries.

The Wing was chartered as the 113th Fighter Group of the Air National Guard in 1947. The Wing's lineage hails from the 352nd Fighter Group, "The Blue Nosed Bastards of Bodney." These brave Americans flew brightly painted P-51 Mustangs during WWII while assigned to the 8th Air Force in Europe. The 352nd compiled an impressive combat record during the war including the destruction of 791.5 enemy aircraft over the course of seven battle campaigns spanning from November of 1943 to April of 1945. Additionally, 27 pilots became aces against the Luftwaffe.

The 352nd Fighter Group was deactivated in November of 1945, but was re-designated and federally recognized as the 113th Fighter Group on May 24th and November 2nd of 1946, respectively. The 113th carries on the 352nd tradition of excellence and proudly maintains the 352nd's motto, "Custodes Pro Defensione."

Since our initial charter, the 113th Wing has been activated for numerous worldwide contingencies to include the Korean War, Pueblo Incident, Vietnam Conflict, and Operation Desert Storm. In addition to these campaigns, the Wing has also been called upon to support numerous community activities such as civil rights marches, peace/anti-war marches, Presidential Inaugurations, prominent funerals, and State of the Union Addresses. Most recently the unit has served with distinction in both Operation Iraqi and Enduring Freedom.

The 113th Wing has a rich heritage of outstanding performance ranging from the individual to the unit level. The legendary former Wing Commander, Major General Willard W. Millikan, a World War II double ace for whom our headquarters building is named, set the coast-to-coast speed record in an F-86 in 1954. In August 1964, the 121st Fighter Squadron, with 19 F-100Cs, was the first ANG unit to deploy non-stop to Europe; successfully demonstrating the Guard's capability to quickly deploy overseas. The unit successfully completed its conversion to the F-16A in October 1990, followed in quick succession in 1994 with the unit's conversion to the F-16C. While flying the F-16, the unit garnered the National Guard Bureau Distinguished Flying Unit Plaque in 1991, 1992, 1993, 1996, and 2005. In addition, the 113th Wing was awarded the Wilson Trophy, as the Outstanding Fighter/Attack/Reconnaissance Wing in the Air National Guard for 1993 and 1997. Finally, in 2001 the 113th Wing received the National Guard Bureau's Spaatz trophy.

This award is directly related the Wing's response to the terrorists attacks of September 11th, 2001, where by 121st Fighter Squadron launched armed F-16s to protects our nation's capital from any follow-on events. Using a large number of volunteers, the unit flew 60 straight hours. However, this mission could not have been fulfilled without the help of our sister squadron, the 201st AS. With all civilian airline traffic grounded, the 201st AS flew across the country couriering senior officers to their respective states to assist in the homeland defense mission. They also picked up fighter squadron pilots, who as civilian airline pilots, were stranded across the country. The decisive and quick actions of the "Capital Guardians" earned the Wing the coveted Spaatz Trophy for 2001 recognizing us as the top Air National Guard flying unit in the country. After September 11th, the unit was given the permanent responsibility to defend the skies of the National Capital Region.

REQUIREMENTS AND QUALIFICATIONS

To Qualify for Pilot Training you MUST:

- Be a U.S. citizen.
- Be eligible to receive a Security Clearance.
- Be physically and mentally fit
- Meet minimum scores on the AFOQT
- Have taken the Test of Basic Aviation Skills (TBAS) and received your test scores.
 - TBAS may not be taken earlier than two weeks after the AFOQT is taken.
- Provide full disclosure of drug use, traffic violations, arrests and convictions. UCMJ/law violations and drug use do not necessarily disqualify an individual but non-disclosure of any offense or use is disqualifying!
- Be not more than 30 years old when you start pilot training and/or have no more than 5 years of commissioned service (normally you will start pilot training approximately one and a half years after the date of the board). Because of the processing lead times, we will not normally interview a candidate who is older than 28 years old.
- Meet the medical standards in accordance with (IAW) AFI 48-123 (http://static.e-publishing.af.mil/production/1/afmc/publication/afi48-123_afmcsup_i/afi48-123_afmcsup_i.pdf).

Below are several points from AFI 48-123:

- Vision requirements IAW Table 6.1 of AFI 48-123. Further restrictions apply for individuals who have had successful eye surgery.
- Height less than 64 inches, or more than 77 inches.
- Sitting height greater than 40 inches or less than 33 inches.
- In no case may weight be less than 103 lbs. or greater than 240 lbs for T-38 and 245 lbs for all other ejection seat aircraft. Weights are unclothed (nude) body weight
- Elevated blood pressure measured in the sitting position (Ref. AFI 48-123 for further information).

A baccalaureate or higher degree from an educational institution listed in the current Accredited Institutions of Post-Secondary Education is required for all appointments unless waived. Exceptionally qualified initial appointment applicants may request a waiver of the degree requirement. Applicant must meet the following GPA requirements:

| If the Applicant has completed | The minimum acceptable GPA is: |
|---------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| 90 but less than 105 semester hours | 2.30 |
| 105 but less than 120 semester hours | 2.20 |
| 120 or more semester hours | 2.10 |

The applicant must initiate the education waiver. The waiver request must outline a degree plan that will result in a four-year degree by the end of the fourth year of commissioned service.

Failure to complete the degree requirement will render the member ineligible for promotion and will result in termination. The commander must provide a memorandum justifying the selection of a non-degree candidate.

SELECTION BOARD AND INTERVIEWING PROCESS

Pilot selection boards are normally held once a year. A panel of 3-4 pilots will interview approximately 10 candidates. The panel is comprised of pilots assigned to the 121st Fighter Squadron. Applications will be screened upon application package receipt; incomplete applications will not be considered for an interview. DCANG unit members who apply will be guaranteed an interview the first time they apply. We typically receive over 30 application packages for 1 pilot slot. Therefore, it is very competitive and many factors are taken into account when choosing candidates.

The Board attempts to select those individuals who are most likely to succeed in pilot training and whose qualifications best fit the squadron's needs.

The board is held at the 113th Wing at Andrews AFB, MD. Interviews will be scheduled approximately one month in advance. Personnel who are selected for an interview will be contacted through e-mail and telephone. Travel, lodging, meals and any other expenses associated with the application/interview process are the responsibility of the candidate.

If selected, all expenses associated with travel to Maryland for processing purposes are also at your own expense until you are qualified for and enlisted as a member of the District of Columbia Air National Guard.

Interviews may be held during the workweek or on a weekend. A typical interview would begin with board member introductions, an explanation of the interview process, and then questions from each board member. Prepare for this interview the same way you would for any job interview. Be prepared to give a general introduction of yourself. As questions are asked, the Board will most likely be looking for answers that show how you have handled similar situations in the past (i.e.: instead of simply stating that your strongest attribute is integrity, give examples of when you demonstrated this attribute). Remember, board members are trying to get to know you and they make selections based upon the "Total Person Concept". Relax and be yourself.

After the Interview, the most qualified candidates will be contacted and offered a position with the DCANG. Out of the applicants, only 1-2 people are selected each year. Selection as an alternate does not guarantee future selection for a training slot. If you are selected as an alternate, you will have to compete with all other applicants again on future selection boards.

If selected as a UPT Candidate, you will need to complete paperwork for a "Top Secret" security clearance and accomplish a physical. Once the physical is completed and approved by the State Air Surgeon, you will need to enlist in the unit. Prior service and current unit members will retain their rank while non-prior service members will join as an E-3. When the appointment packet is finished, it will be submitted to the National Guard Bureau (NGB) for approval. NGB's approval will clear the way for a Class I Flight Physical and subsequent attendance at the Air National Guard Officer Training School (ANGOTS)(E-5 and above will maintain rank, others will be promoted to E-5). Upon completion of ANGOTS, you will be appointed to the rank of 2^{na} Lieutenant.

THE FIGHTER PILOT TRAINING PROCESS

If you are selected for Undergraduate Pilot Training, you can plan on spending approximately 2 ½ years in some sort of formal military training, beginning approximately a year after your selection. Successful completion of this training requires dedication, long hours and strong family support.

The table below lists the schools you will attend, their duration and their location(s). With the exception of ANGOTS, we attempt to schedule all of the schools back-to-back. However, because of class schedules, you may have a break between periods of active duty while waiting for a school date. The time between schools could vary from a few days to a few weeks.

| School | Description | Location | Duration |
|---|--|---|----------|
| Air National Guard Officer Training School (ANGOTS) | Basic military training, leadership and professional development | Maxwell AFB, AL (Montgomery) | 6 weeks |
| Undergraduate Pilot Training (UPT) | Pilot School, Approximately Fly a combined 200 hrs in the T-6 and T-38 | 1 of 4 possible locations: Vance AFB, OK; Columbus AFB, MS; Laughlin AFB, TX; Sheppard AFB, TX | 54 weeks |
| Introduction to Fighter Fundamentals (IFF) | Learn the fundamentals of air-to-air and air-to-ground operations in the AT-38 | 1 of 3 possible locations: Sheppard AFB, TX; Columbus AFB, MS; Randolph AFB, TX | 6 weeks |
| Replacement Training Unit | Learn to fly and fight in the F-16 | 1 of 4 possible locations: Holloman AFB, NM; Tucson ANGB, AZ; Lackland AFB, TX (Kelley Annex); Luke AFB, AZ | 8 months |
| Survival School - Water | Learn the basics of water survival | Naval Air Station Pensacola, FL | 4 days |
| Survival School - Land | Learn the basics of land survival | Fairchild AFB, Spokane, WA | 17 days |

FLYING WITH THE 121ST AFTER TRAINING

Your service commitment to the Air National Guard is 10 years from the date you graduate from Undergraduate Pilot Training. An important thing to remember is that when you are selected for appointment, you are hired as a traditional guard member and should not anticipate full-time employment after seasoning days. Less than 50% of unit membership is comprised of full-time employees. They are responsible for day-to-day operations and training for the "traditional" Guard members. There are two full-time employment options:

The Technician Program. Technicians are GS-9 through GS-14 members of the federal civil service and are required to maintain traditional membership as a military member of the unit.

The Active Guard/Reserve (AGR) Program. AGR's are full-time National Guard duty members with the same pay, rules and benefits as active duty members.

We have historically hired full-time employees from the unit's pool of traditional members. Full-time employment is possible, but not likely until you have been with the unit for a length of time.

In addition to home station training, we may deploy numerous times throughout the year. These deployments can span the globe and include every mission we are qualified to accomplish.

Current Pay Scale and Benefits

This information is based on the DFAS 2014 pay scale.

During your training, you and your dependents will be covered by the military's health insurance, Tricare. You will also have the option to enroll, at your own expense, in a n insurance program that provides dental coverage for your dependents.

Physicals

An Appointment Physical must be completed if you are selected. This physical must be administered by the Military Entrance Processing Station (MEPS) and approved by the State Air Surgeon (SAS).

All pilot candidates must pass the Air Force Flying Class 1 physical as well. This physical will be administered by an Air Force Flight Surgeon at an appropriate Military Treatment Facility.

The Air Force Officer Qualifying Test (AFOQT)

The Air Force Officer Qualifying Test is similar to the ACT or SAT exam. Study guides are available at most bookstores and libraries. You may only take this test twice during your lifetime (i.e., if you are unhappy with your initial test scores, you are allowed to retest one more time). There must be at least 180 days between tests. The most recent test scores are the ones that are valid (i.e., if you test a second time and receive a lower score in an area, you may not use the test score from the first test).

SUBJECT: UPT Selection Board

1. I am writing you this letter to express my desire to be considered in your upcoming UPT selection board. I am interested in becoming an officer and an aviator in your unit. I understand that this means attending training at the convenience of the government. (Tell us how you heard about us, be factual) I heard about your unit and your upcoming selection board via an announcement on your website.

I am currently 23 years old and possess a Bachelor of Sciences Degree in Business Management with a minor in Aeronautics. I have been a member of the 108th Air Refueling Wing at Andrews Air Force Base for the past six years as a crew chief on the KC-135. I used the tuition assistance and benefits of the Air National Guard to get my degree and look forward to becoming a fighter pilot in your squadron.
